

Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra Closes Out the Season for the Festival of Orchestras

Vero Beach, FL (February 24, 2026) – The Indian River Symphonic Association proudly presents the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, returning to Vero Beach on Tuesday, March 24, 2026, at 7:30 PM at the Community Church of Vero Beach.

Under the baton of its celebrated music director JoAnn Falletta—hailed by The New York Times as “one of the finest conductors of her generation”—the orchestra will deliver an evening of exceptional artistry and emotion.

Joining Falletta is acclaimed violinist Simone Porter, whose electrifying performances have captivated audiences around the world. The Spokesman-Review praised her remarkable command of the instrument, writing, “If you wish to know what Simone Porter can do on the violin, the answer is simple: whatever she wants.”

Together, Falletta and Porter will bring Bruch’s Scottish Fantasy to life in a performance brimming with passion, lyricism, and brilliance.

Tickets are $90 and are available online at www.irsymphonic.org or by calling 772.778.1070.

DONATIONS

IRSA is a non-profit organization. Ticket sales cover only about 65% of the cost of bringing world-class orchestral performances to our stage. The rest is made possible by the generosity of our donors. To support IRSA with a donation, click here.

ABOUT IRSA

Since 1994, the Indian River Symphonic Association (IRSA) has shared the joy of exceptional symphonic music with the Vero Beach community, enriching, inspiring, and bringing people together through the power of live performance. Hosting 59 orchestras from 19 countries, IRSA has featured distinguished conductors, celebrated soloists, and outstanding musicians who make Indian River County a vibrant home for the arts. Education is also central to its mission. Since 1998, more than 1,100 fifth graders each year have discovered the excitement of live orchestral music through IRSA's annual Children's Concerts. The organization also provides scholarships to promising young musicians, nurturing our next generation of artists.
