

Orpheus Chamber Orchestra to Perform in Festival of Orchestras

Vero Beach, FL (February 5, 2026) – The Indian River Symphonic Association (IRSA) presents the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, on Thursday, March 5, 2026, 7:30 PM at the Community Church of Vero Beach.

Founded over fifty years ago, Orpheus transformed orchestral music by performing with the intimacy and precision of a chamber ensemble. A New York Times reviewer observed "...smiles born of camaraderie, shared accomplishment, and deep engagement with exceptional music... the real secret of Orpheus' success."

Acclaimed pianist Marc-André Hamelin will join the orchestra performing Liszt's Wanderer Fantasy (after Schubert). The New York Times praises Hamelin as "a performer of near-superhuman technical prowess."

Don't miss this extraordinary opportunity to experience a virtuosic orchestral performance live in Vero Beach.

Tickets are $90 and are available online at www.irsymphonic.org or by calling 772.778.1070.

DONATIONS

IRSA is a non-profit organization. Ticket sales cover only about 65% of the cost of bringing world-class orchestral performances to our stage. The rest is made possible by the generosity of our donors. To support IRSA with a donation, click here.

ABOUT IRSA

Since 1994, the Indian River Symphonic Association (IRSA) has shared the joy of exceptional symphonic music with the Vero Beach community, enriching, inspiring, and bringing people together through the power of live performance. Hosting 59 orchestras from 19 countries, IRSA has featured distinguished conductors, celebrated soloists, and outstanding musicians who make Indian River County a vibrant home for the arts. Education is also central to its mission. Since 1998, more than 1,100 fifth graders each year have discovered the excitement of live orchestral music through IRSA's annual Children's Concerts. The organization also provides scholarships to promising young musicians, nurturing our next generation of artists.
